Part B (70 marks)

With shorter school days and fewer activities during the COVID-19 pandemic, many students in Hong Kong have been spending more time online. You are worried as some of your best friends have become addicted to the Internet. Write a problem-solution article for the school magazine on the problem. You may want to talk about how Internet addiction is affecting our health, studies and relationships with friends and family and what we can do about it. Write no less than 180 words.
