Part B

For questions 2-5, choose ONE question and write no less than 350 words. Mark which question you are going to attempt in the question number box on page 7.

2. Learning English through Workplace Communication

A four-day work week is an arrangement where employees work full-time for four days in a week and have a three-day weekend. However, they may need to work longer every day. Recently, you have read a few articles in the Hong Kong Post which suggest that more companies should consider adopting this practice. Now write a letter to the editor to express your opinions on this.

3. Learning English through Social Issues

The following excerpt appeared in an article in the Daily News:

With the popularity of social media in the world today, it has become more common for people to take photos or videos of themselves doing dangerous or disrespectful things in order to get 'likes' and 'shares'.

- Write an article for the school newspaper.
- Discuss the trend, giving some examples and suggesting ways to discourage this kind of behaviour.
- Give your article a title.

4. Learning English through Short Stories

You are going to enter a short story competition. Entrants have been asked to imagine they are an everyday object and write about a day in the life of this object.

You have decided to write your story as a bus stop sign or a basketball. Make your choice now and write the story. Give your story a title.

5. Learning English through Debating

You found the following information on a travel website:

Visiting a museum is a great way to spend a few hours. Of the top ten most-visited museums around the world, four charge admission fees, while the others allow free entry.

Write an argumentative essay discussing the pros and cons of offering free admission to all museums.

End of Questions for Part B

FOR PART B ONLY

Put the number to indicate the question (Q.2 - Q.5) that you have chosen inside the question number box.
